Harmful Sexual Behaviour Training With NSPCC

Free to partners
Refreshments & lunch provided

When: 9th July 2019 @ 9:30am - 1:00pm

Where: The Chaucer Centre, Canterbury Road, Morden, England, SM4 6PX

The NSPCC runs the National Clinical Assessment and Treatment Service (NCATS) in partnership with the Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust providing assessments and a range of specialist interventions for children and young people displaying harmful sexual behaviour.

The training will provide a general overview of problematic and harmful sexual behaviour (PSB or HSB). It will cover when and how to intervene, including recognising trauma and its impact. The training will be interactive and include the use of case studies – and aims to be relevant and applicable to your practice!
