

The size and structure of the adult social care sector and workforce in England, 2019

Continued growth of the adult social care workforce

1.62 million jobs

in adult social care in England

Economic contribution of adult social care to the economy in England £40.5bn*

Additional jobs by 2035

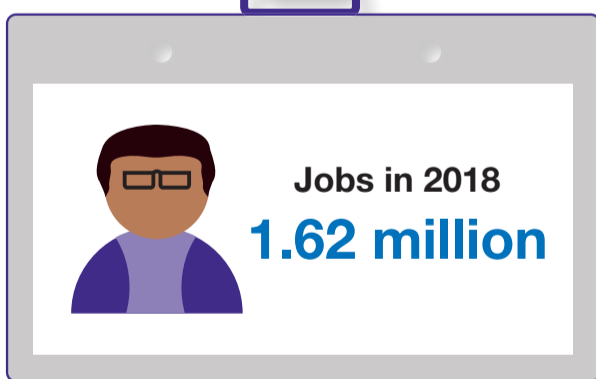

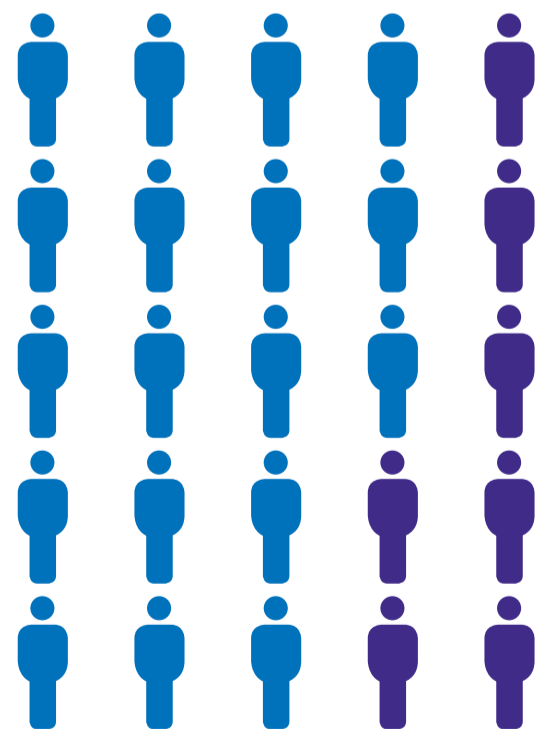

65+ model
this model assumes the workforce will grow proportionally to the number of people aged 65 and over in the population

75+ model
this model assumes the workforce will grow proportionally to the number of people aged 75 and over in the population

Number of jobs in adult social care in 2018 and the number of jobs projected to be required by 2035
Each person = 90,000 jobs

For more information refer to the full report which can be downloaded at www.skillsforcare.org.uk/sizeandstructure.

*Calculated using ICF Consulting Ltd information, www.skillsforcare.org.uk/economicvalue