Practice Education Workshops 2021-22

The Teaching Partnership is continuing to deliver a series of workshops to support Practice Educators working in Partnership agencies and independent Practice Educators who work with Kingston University students. These workshops will also be relevant for OnSite Supervisors and Practice Assessors who are welcome to attend. The sessions have been scheduled to align with Kingston University placement timelines and will be delivered by the Partnership's Practice Consultants - Josie Newton and Sharon Evans. These workshops form the basis of our developing Practice Educator Community of Practice so please do join us regularly to network with peers and share your experiences!

Practice Educator and On Site Supervisor Drop In Sessions 2021-22

Josie Newton and Sharon Evans would love to see any colleagues who are Practice Educators or On Site Supervisors at our monthly sessions as we continue to develop the community of practice. The sessions last for 2 hours. The focus during the first hour will be reflective group supervision. The second hour will focus on queries/issues that colleagues would like to raise. Please feel free to join for all or part of these sessions. Josie and Sharon look forward to seeing you there.
